Schedule

I know you were given a date of June 4 and 5 to start production but that is not doable in many respects as it is graduation weekend for us and an anniversary weekend of someone of quite importance to the production, SO...

We will be planning the following weekend of Saturday morning, June 11 from 2 am - 9 am and Sunday morning June 12 from 2 am - 9 am. I know Rob calls it Friday Night and Saturday Night, but however it works for you — did all of you know this was going to be the time slot?

More dates to come and actual needs for the dates as the script gets its rewrite

Story

I know, I know, “what is the story?”

I'm not going to tell you.

Until it is ready. Since we added a few new players to play existing characters but have changed their gender, I have to go back and fix the dialog and action to fit. The script is an easy read, the difficulty will be bringing an unusual part of you and adding it to it, so do not worry about not having it yet, it will come soon, at least by the end of the week or sooner.

You will get a nice packet from me with all the information about your character.

Webpage

For those of you that do not know me, and there are quite a few in this production, I am a different kind of person, in so much as, I appreciate and acknowledge everyone's hard work and effort by showcasing them on a website which we have for “the WATERING hole”, as well as, a facebook page.

This website will be up as long as the internet exists. So send me your info, bio, and headshot, if you have not done so already and I will get it posted. Keep in mind that any time you want to update your info, say after a year, ten years, or when ever, just send me an email with the update and it will be done, just for you. Please see what I have done for the cast & crew of THE GOLdEN TREE

Crew

Crew always gets the last word, but they are first with me. I am honored to announce those that will be a part of the construction of this production.

In no particular order except off the top of my head, and not all positions are finalized or correctly labeled — you will learn, I always credit myself last, because without the cast & crew this would still be in black and white on paper.
